

Statement of Funding: How We Stay Independent

At Truth Over Empire, our mission is rooted in uncovering repressed truths, exposing systemic injustices, and holding powerful institutions accountable—without fear or favor. To maintain this uncompromising stance, we remain fully independent of government funding, corporate sponsorships, or any institution that may influence our voice.

Our Funding Philosophy

We believe that true justice and truth-telling cannot be bought or controlled. That's why our work is powered solely by the people—through:

- Small monthly contributions from everyday supporters
- One-time donations from individuals who believe in our cause
- Merchandise sales and educational materials
- Crowdfunding campaigns for specific legal or advocacy projects

We do not accept funds from:

- Political parties
- Oil or extractive industry corporations
- State actors or affiliated NGOs
- Any entity with a history of complicity in colonial violence, profiting or disinformation

Why This Matters

Remaining financially independent protects our ability to:

- Investigate boldly and report honestly
- Advocate without compromise
- Represent survivor voices authentically

- Focus on justice for the Igbo people and other oppressed groups—not political convenience

Be a Pillar of Truth

Every contribution—no matter how small—is a statement against empire and silence. When you support us, you're ensuring that history is not rewritten by the powerful, but reclaimed by the survivors.
